EDITORIAL: We are getting "sick and tired" of the "LARRY" Gamesmasters who collect money for games and then don't care if they run them or not!
We think that this business of some of them-who add a week, two weeks, or more for every move just not arrive at a smooth game of postal diplomacy. Also we detest those that change the handling of missed moves after the game is started and is progressing to a climax. Bah!

Many of you have noticed and made nice comments on the photocoffset illustrations that I have been using in Big Brother. Anyone who wants a set of ten of these (printed on one side in most cases-in other words no typing or extra material added to the original use of these drawings) may have these as a set suitable for framing for a buck!

Question: Why are the Diplomacy players in the Baltimore area afraid to play in Big Brother?

We have never been afraid to play in their mags!
